Meeting of the General Membership Meeting via Zoom on January 19, 2021

1. President’s Report: Jung Min Lee
   a. Very tumultuous and trying times, it has really worn on her this month
   b. Major policy changes came in right before December break (such as District 2 priority going away)
   c. She will try to join the meeting with the Chancellor, so high schools have more of a voice, please let her know if you want to share your opinion about the changes with her

2. Principal’s Report: Brooke Jackson a. Her focus is to lead the high schoolers onto their next step (secondary education)
   b. She works for equity of access
   c. Brooke sits on the Chancellor’s advisory council with 12 seasoned principals, wants to make sure our voices are heard
   d. Tomorrow we’ve designed an alternate schedule so Labbies can watch the inauguration together with their Family Circle, thinks it’s important everyone views this piece of history
   e. We’re at the midpoint of the year, we are refining the structural core and the student life f. She does not think we will be back in the building this school year
      i. In February, we will plan mixers so the kids can meet others ii. World Majority Day is coming up iii. Issuing a mid-year survey to students and parents
   g. Adding more electives, can join current ones, shifting the times
   h. Next week is an alternative schedule, Ms. Arroyo will send out the schedule
      i. Still a mandatory Family Circle every day ii. Focus will be on students who are not yet passing their classes iii. Enrichment classes are not mandatory
   i. Next Tuesday evening is College Night, students are encouraged to join us
   j. Wednesday night we’re having an additional open house (because of the changes to District 2 priority)
   k. The next series of Roundtables will be held 2/8, 2/9, 2/10 and 2/11, before February break
   l. We will find ways to celebrate Lunar New Year in February
   m. Also in February, we will “put a blessing on Black History Month”
   n. There will be a Respect For All week in February, so every student feels they belong and no one’s identity will be attacked
   o. A question came in about electives, yes— they do get graded, students tend to do very well in them

3. Student Report: Fallon Utley
   a. The students are writing thank you notes to health care workers
   b. For Valentines Day, they wanted to do online candy grams, but they couldn’t find a website that would have helped, anyone have any suggestions?
   c. Will come up with something for March Madness, within DOE guidelines

4. SLT Report: Alan Cashdollar
a. The Parent Racial Equity Team is working with the administration
b. The Health & Wellness Committee had its first meeting
c. We had a coat drive
d. We talked about the new admissions criteria
e. We can help Fallon with the health care workers and Valentines Day

5. Treasurer's Report: Jill Bregenzer
   a. Just under $13,000 came in in December
   b. Total year to date income is $41,800
   c. Contributed $5,000 to the school for clubs and after school
   d. Spent $3,500 on teacher appreciation— gave $50 Seamless gift cards to each teacher and staff member

6. Committee Reports:
   a. Membership: Fran said people are joining the email list every week, she sends out the newsletter
   b. Fundraising: Lucy thanked everyone who contributed at the end of the year, she’s working on the thank you notes
   c. Merchandise: Jung Min spoke about how the Black and Latino groups are working on logos for their club t-shirts
   d. Nominations Committee: Let Jung Min know if you would like to be on the nominating committee and to think about next year's leadership opportunities

7. Old Business:
   a. Parent Career Speakers: Souad said the kids have been super engaged
   b. Books & Materials: Lisa said the delivery went well, Pam C. was incredibly helpful
   c. Jen E. spoke about upcoming speakers
      i. Diana Martinez will speak February 23rd, she’s amazing, thinks it’s okay to have kids on the call too ii. The April 20th speaker will be about college readiness iii. Jung Min mentioned that we will have the Child Mind Institute speak

8. Tonight’s Featured Speaker was Isaac Foster, CEO of Bespoke Education